

Recruitment Support
Retention & Pipeline Development
Training and Skill Development
Labor Market Intelligence

CONNECT with the Business Team at Frederick County Workforce Services.

Recruitment Support

Free job posting and promotion to the local labor market. Work with a dedicated Business Consultant to develop a customized plan.

Frederick
BusinessWorks

Frederick BusinessWORKS is an effort to support workers and increase both participants' and companies' competitiveness. This program offers funding support training current employees.

Frederick
Drives

Need CDL drivers? Train one of your current employees to acquire a Commercial Driving License for free! Flexible training schedule is available..

Work and Learn Internship

Provide an internship opportunity for a student (college and/or technical training) and receive funding to help develop your talent pipeline in critical occupations.

Business Education Series

Monthly workshops featuring important topics to help your business adapt to new labor market dynamics, streamline processes, build strategic plans and develop effective practices during the pandemic and beyond. Free for Frederick County Businesses!

Experience
Frederick

Experience Frederick Internship Program supports businesses in the Frederick County Biotech industry. This program provides wage reimbursement to businesses that host paid internships for college students and recent graduates.

Biotech
Boot Camp

The Bio Tech Bootcamp program is an effort to support the local Biotech/Bioscience industry by developing the pipeline of talent needed for Entry-level positions. This program has been developed in collaboration with local industry leaders and provides a training subsidy.

Recovery is Good Business

Learn the economic and cultural benefits of connecting to the recovery community - an untapped talent pipeline in Frederick County! Recovery is Good Business is an initiative supporting Frederick County businesses in hiring and retaining talent in the recovery community.

-- Click the program title for more information --